Campaign Started to Complete Second Unit Museum Building

Every Citizen Will Be Given Chance to Aid

A campaign has been started to raise $50,000 by December 1 to complete the second unit of the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society Museum.

Directors were here Sunday to meet at the Museum building. A review of 26 counties of the Panhandle indicated that some of the counties had raised large amounts of money. Others had raised only small amounts, while the campaign had not been started in other counties.

The directors discussed at length whether or not to employ a financial agent for the purpose of organizing the campaign in all of the counties to put the proposition over in a short time. With directors appointed from each county, it was decided that a renewal of the campaign would be made at this time in order to give the present method a chance to succeed.

Architect Macon Carder estimated that it would take about $15,000 to complete the first floor of the second unit and make it ready for use. The main building must be repainted, due to water damage on the north wall, and due to the fact that no repairs have been made on the first unit since it was built in 1933.

Installation of heat, lights, and completion of the second floor of the new unit would require the balance of the $50,000 which will be sought in this campaign.

All of the directors present were enthusiastic over the progress that had been made toward the completion of the building.

Secretary L. F. Sheffy stated that valuable collections had been promised to the Museum as soon as the second unit is completed and a (Continued on page 8)

Lindsey Motor Open House Is Held Thursday

Hundreds of Randall county citizens visited the Lindsey Motor Co. building Thursday when the formal opening of the business was held.

More than a dozen new Ford cars and trucks were on display, which were eagerly inspected by the throng which visited the remodeled building.

Tribute to Paul Lindsey was paid by scores of friends who sent bouquets of flowers to decorate the buildings on this occasion.

Mr. Lindsey has been owner of the Lindsey Motor Company, Ford Agency, for several years. The agency has grown to a great extent since he took over the business. He has completely remodeled the building during the past year. The Baldwin line of farm machinery is being added to the Ford Agency, and is handled in a separate building.

Many useful gifts were distributed among the visitors during the day.

Randall County Shorthorns Win Tri-State Fair

Karney Pilpail Third, two-year old heifer, bred and owned by Marion Bruce, and Don Acres Improver, two-year old bull, bred and owned by Reeves Donnell, were chosen for the Texas State Herd, to be shown at the National Shorthorn show at the American Royal, Kansas City, Oct. 22-23. Both breeders declined to let their animals make the trip with winter so close at hand and the feed shortage problem to face.

Milking Shorthorns from Randall County shown at the Tri-State Fair stood above the Northern as well as the Texas State Herd cattle in both male and female classes. The herd sire at Don Acres Farm was first place two-year old bull and reserve champion, and females from both Bruce and Donnell herds were consistent high winners. A junior yearling bull, shown by R. A. Brown, placed third in a large class of young bulls.

Mr. Donnell stated that Randall County has a number of good herds of registered cattle and that there is no better time than the present to cull mediocre cattle over the scales and take better care of the more profitable kind.

Court Snarls Amendment to Constitution

Foes of the measure landed another retarding blow at the College Building Amendment last week when Judge Roy C. Archer of the 126th District Court issued an order which temporarily will freeze any further progress on the program granting 60 million dollars to the state's 14 colleges and universities.

The amendment was authorized officially by the voters of Texas August 14, but since then opponents of the action have filed charges contesting legality of the amendment.

All of the opposition came from citizens of Lubbock who cliam that Texas Tech is not receiving its just share of the building fund.

In the court action last week, Judge Archer sent a temporary injunction to Secretary of State Paul Brown, instructing him to restrain from "tabulating, estimating or canvassing" the returns of the election until a suit had been filed challenging its validity.

It prevented certification that there is no litigation against the building program bonds, and without such certification, the attorney general's office applies a standing rule to refuse approval of the bonds.

As principal arguments against the amendment, the suit, styled C. W. Whiteside and others versus Paul Brown, secretary of state, contends that:

1. The proposed amendment was not published once each week for four weeks, commencing at least three months before the election, as constitutionally required, in Bexar, Galveston, El Paso, Hill, Moore and Taylor counties—that there was in fact no publication of the amendment in any newspaper of the six counties.

2. The amendment was not printed in entirety upon the ballot as required by statute.

3. The amendment was not in constitutionally-required form in that it contained more than one question which the electorate had to vote on as a single proposition.

4. The description of the amendment contained on ballots used in mechanical voting machines differed from mandatory provisions of statutes and the Senate joint resolution proposing the amendment.

5. Irregularities in publication of the amendment existed in numerous counties throughout the state.

Voters Rejected Road Bond Issue In Election Held Saturday

Small Vote In All Precincts Of the County

Only 873 voters in Randall county, out of a possible 2500, took the time to go to the polls Saturday and vote on the $750,000 Road Bond issue which was sponsored by the Randall County Farm Bureau.

The bond issue lost by a large majority. There were only 353 votes cast in favor of the bond issue, and 520 votes against the bond issue. With 873 votes cast, it would have required a vote of 582 to carry the bond issue. The law requires a two-thirds majority to pass road bonds.

The bond issue had a majority in only four of the nine voting precincts. The majority against the bond issue was heavy in three of the other five voting precincts.

South Amarillo piled up a heavy vote against the bond issue, with only 29 of the 270 voters favoring the issue. Wildorado cast a 8½ to one vote against the issue, while Fairview and Umbarger both voted against the bond issue.

The most surprizing vote was in Canyon where only 327 out of a possible 1250 voters took the time to go to the polls. The majority against the bond issue was heavy, based upon the necessary two-thirds vote needed to carry the issue.

Before the vote Saturday, A. E. Wise, president of the Randall County Farm Bureau, urged the people to go to the polls and express their sentiment. Officers of this organization hoped that at least 2,000 voters would go to the polls. Not half that number voted.

The only two precincts to roll up the necessary two-thirds majority were Hileman, No. 2, and Park, No. 5. The Ralph box, No. 3, was just even on the two-thirds basis.

There has been little discussion of another election on the bond issue, dhe to the heavy opposition, but some action will likely be taken next year after the State Highway Commission determines its policy on farm-to-market roads.

Mayor W. A. Warren Talked Of Future of Canyon at Luncheon

Mayor W. A. Warren talked Tuesday at the Rotary Club luncheon on the problems which confronts the city of Canyon at the present time.

The predominent problems are expansion of the water system, securing funds for increased operating expenses, and money for repair of street paving, as well as improved parking system and widening Highway 87.

Mr. Warren ended his discussion with the statement that a new city commission would be elected next April, and that it was necessary to file the names for candidates 30 days in advance of election. He urged citizens to begin thinking about the next commission.

Mr. Warren stated that he was grateful for the fine cooperation which had been given the city commission during the 5 years that he had served as mayor. He recognized that the commission had made mistakes, but on vital issues the commission had sought the advice of citizens before making decisions.

The city government is a sort of jigsaw puzzle. There was a decline in population until 1943 when a building campaign started, especially during 1947.

Some citizens feel that they should continue to build as they please. But the city must have a definite course in its development.

He praised the city employees, but stated the city was losing at least two of them because they could get better jobs. The city now has 973 water meters, this means that these must be read, kept in repair; that sewer lines must go to these homes; that trash must be hauled from these homes; that streets must be repaired for these citizens. At the present time the city hauls 225 truck loads of trash to the dump yard every month.

Street repairs takes a lot of money. Last summer a truck loaded with 900 bushels of wheat drove up and down the streets trying to avoid the highway patrolmen. It cost the city several hundred dollars to repair the damage this truck did to the streets.

The State Highway Department gave permission to haul a load of 77,000 pounds, plus weight of equipment, over the streets of Canyon, which were not built for such loads. Mr. Warren says that it has cost the city $10,000 to repair the streets during the past five years, and there is need for at least $10,000 more of repairs on the streets.

The city is trying to solve the zoning problem by keeping business houses out of the residential section, and to keep residences out of business locations.

Collection Of Year's Taxes Is Now Underway

Collection of State and County taxes started Wednesday at the office of Tax Collector M. E. Cantrell.

According to the tax rolls, the valuation for the year amounts to $8,820,335. The 1946 tax roll amounted to $8,207,823, showing an increase for the year of $612,512.

The county is collecting 92 cents on the $100 valuation, which is the same rate as last year. Valuations for the year are on the same basis as last year, the increase in valuations being attributed to new construction and new property acquired by citizens during the past year.

The state has increased its rate due to the heavy appropriations which were passed by the regular session of the legislature.

Notices have been mailed on taxes and collection started Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Irby Carruth and sons of Waco were here Saturday for the Black-Hinders wedding and to visit at the parental Henry Bradford home. Mr. Carruth, former superintendent of the Canyon schools, is now superintendent of the Waco schools.

Rough Ride

Heavy Expenditures Foreseen in County New Farm Homes

Farm families in Randall county will spend more than $304,000 for new housing in the next three to five years, according to a forecast released by the Tile Council of America.

"As a result of high income during the last few years, farmers in every part of the nation are prepared to invest record amounts in new home construction and in general farm improvements," said F. B. Ortman, chairman of the Council's residential construction committee.

Pointing out that the comforts and conveniences of urban living are now available to farm families, Ortman said that new rural homes will incorporate such features as water pressure systems, tiled bathrooms and modern kitchen facilities.

Rapid electrification of rural areas of Texas is making possible the incorporation in new homes of many labor-saving and comfort-providing devices undreamed of a generation ago, according to Ortman. An estimate discloses that more than 55 per cent of all farms in the state now receive central station electric service. Refrigerators, electric washing machines and deep freezing plants, as well as plumbing systems, will go into many new homes as a consequence.

Sheriff Cantrell Not Able to Accept FBI Invitation

No Rain Falls Here During September

Moisture in Canyon was an entire blank for the month of September.

The total moisture for the year of 14.56 inches as reported on September 1st, remains the same on October 1st.

While conditions look a little more favorable, no rain has been promised over this immediate section.

Excepting for those farmers who have irrigation wells, the outlook for feed is very poor. Due to the lack of moisture to bring up the volunteer wheat, no wheat has been planted for next year's crop.

Editorials

EIGHTH NEWSPAPER WEEK

This is the 8th Annual Newspaper Week. From the looks of this issue of The News, the reader may not be fully aware of the importance of this annual event. Frankly we are disappointed again that we have not been able to do this occasion justice.

For six years The News was the only newspaper in this area which devoted a special section to newspaper week. During the first five years we published a 12-page section upon this occasion. Then we had to drop to an 8-page section. Last year we had only two pages.

We are confronted with a situation this year that hits us two ways. We have neither the labor nor the paper to publish a special section, as much as we would like to do so. We are not crying, because every weekly newspaper in the nation is in the same boat.

The labor situation continues as acute as ever. Young men are not learning the printing business. Printing is a tough job, and takes a long period of training. Too many young fellows today will not consider learning a trade that takes several years to complete, when they can grab a saw, hammer or monkey wrench and draw larger pay than the teachers of the nation, or the average white collar worker. But this is the situation and no one can do a thing about it.

The News has just enough paper on hand to run until our next car arrives—or is supposed to arrive. This is the first time that we have hit bottom on newsprint. Other weeklies have been suffering in this fashion, but we have always managed ot keep a little stock pile ahead. The situation this year is different.

Our devotion in the future of weekly newspapers is stronger today than ever before. We have never been shaken in our faith for the press by the various and sundry predictions which have been made from time to time that the country press was about to fold up and pass out of the picture. So long as the press is alive and alert it will continue to grow.

During this National Newspaper Week we urge you to take time out to rediscover what your newspaper means to you and your community. If you don't think it is a very close part of your life, try this simple ex pertinent; when your paper comes just set it aside and see how long you can refrain from reading it.

This newspaper classic by Louis Taylor Merrill tells why the home town newspapers are so close to the hearts and minds of their readers:

FILES ON PARADE

In the boundless vast
Of things that were,
Out of the past
The echoes stir
And live once more
Where the presses roar.

Who says that a paper can't feel and think?
Yellowed pages, ancient ink
Volumes dusty and touched with mold—
Yet how much of the life of the town they hold.

Star-aimed faiths of the men who dreamed,
And hoped, and strove and surmounted trails—
All set forth in the musty files—
Accounts of times when the "eagle screamed,"
Accounts of days when the town's heart bled
Solemnly mourning heroic dead,
Storied of triumph and stories of pain
Days of sunshine and of rain,
Witty lines and commonplaces,
Old friends' half forgotten faces,
Birth for youth, and death for age—
Tidings that make folk weep or laugh
Borne in column or paragraph
Marching across the weekly page.

Who says that a paper can't feel and think
Yellowed sheets and ancient ink,
Volumes dusty and touched with mold—
Yet how much of the life of the town they hold!

Some towns and some counties are voting bonds and increasing tax rates to provide for needed local improvements, while others are defeating bond issues and proposals to increase local taxes. A few months ago it was easy to do either. Conditions have changed in recent months. The high cost of living is a vital thing with all citizens. They can feel and see their dollar shrink in its buying power. Therefore they are aware of the fact that sooner or later their dollars will not cover their cost of living, unless a check is made. The result is that scores of counties and cities of Texas have turned down bond issues and increased taxes in recent weeks. The idea of stopping increased taxes prevails and there is nothing anyone can do about it. There are two vital factors in such revolt of the public:: One is the large property owners, who are always opposed to paying large taxes. Tax leagues usually turn into opposing bodies to all taxes, regardless of all that the progressive members may do about the situation. The other factor is the small home owner—the fellow who has a home, and nothing else subject to taxation. This class predominates in every city and county. These are the fellows who are usually on a meager salary, and who pay taxes out of proportion to the physical worth of their property. They are the ones who have always caught the brunt of taxation and will always be the victims. The larger property owners usually have sources of hidden wealth which escapes taxation, which is apparent to the masses. Probably the masses over estimate the ability of the big boys to escape taxation, grossly over estimate the situation; but the fact that the suspicion exists is the chief reason for these two opposing forces to join hands when it comes to any move to increase taxes. On the one hand, the big boys usually have all they need, and want to protect their property; and the little fellows are stretching all that they have in order to get by. There is no way that such a united force may be overcome in times like these.

The News is not pretending to know how to run the affairs of the University of Texas. But we have been greatly interested in the internal affairs of the greatest university in the South west. The university has had its share of internal combustions, but has always withstood the trials and tribulations of a great, growing institution. It is too big to be sucked under by one man, or one group of men. Regardless of who may try to run the affairs of the university, it will continue to grow and will improve in usefulness year after year. Now comes the case of J. Frank Dobie who has been a member of the faculty for 33 years—or rather until four years ago when he disconnected himself from the university and assumed the role of sniper from the sidelines. Under recommendations of the administration, the Board of Regents passed a regulation which provides that leaves of absence may be granted for only one year. Dobie has taken four years. When notified that his four year leave was terminated, Dobie ignored the authority of the President to call him back to the class room, or drop him from the faculty. While Dobie may be a great asset to the university as a teacher, certainly he is no asset while sitting on the sideline, criticizing everything which goes on in the university. Dobie was a great lover of Dr. Rainey, who was deposed by the Board of Regents and later ignored by the voters of Texas when he sought to vindicate himself by running for Governor. Just how the university has lost anything in firing Dobie is not clear to us. Dobie was not teaching; refused to teach; and gave no indication as to when he intended returning to the classroom. The university might as well elect President Truman as a member of the faculty or announce Winston Churchill as a member of the teaching force for all the good that Dobie was doing the university. If Dobie was getting a salary, or any part of his salary he was getting money under false pretenses since he was AWOL from his job. Dobie seems to be another of those state officials who are too big for their pants. All governments need a good housecleaning, and this case may be a good example for those who think they may ignore those in authority.

John L. Lewis defies the government in his refusal to sign the anti-Communist affidavit as required by the Taft-Hartley Labor law. Everyone knows that Lewis is not a Communist, but the American public considers him pretty much of a heel in his continued defiance of the government which has made it possible for him to build up the greatest labor organization the world has ever seen. Instead of full cooperation in trying out the new labor law, Lewis has set out on a course to defy the law at every turn. If the government were unreasonable in its demands, there might be some excuse for the attitude of Lewis. The government has allowed Lewis and other labor leaders to have their own way so long that they think they own the government. This is a bad situation.

It seems that Russia has overplayed its hand in trying to block the United States. The opposition of Russia is now reacting. This is just about what you would expect when a bully tries to rule, and takes in too much territory. Sooner or later the crowd gangs up on him and ties him in a knot. The cry of "warmonger" falls on deaf ears when it is realized that the little nations which Stalin is trying to rope in would in reality be biting the hand which feeds them.

Senator Taft is too busy on his own campaign mission to bother about being in Washington to confer with President Truman this week on the European situation. Naturally. If the Truman plan works, Taft could claim no credit; but if the Truman plan fails, Taft will have more campaign thunder. Politics is a wonderful thing, the way politicians play the game.

Legislative sleight-of-hand means slashing an appropriation one day and slipping it back the next.

As things go, in these uncertain times, just showing up on Monday morning is a success story in itself.

Higher wages don't solve the problem. They only postpone it until higher prices cancel the increase.

In betting on the sweepstakes, there's more accent on the weep than the take.

Disagreement with President Juan D. Peron over policies, especially those relating to labor, have led several of his former followers in the Argentine Chamber of Deputies to desert him. Peron still has the support of more than half the Chamber, but he has lost the two-thirds majority that formerly enabled him to put legislation through at will.

The biggest single reason why China continues to turn out masses of paper currency is that Nationalist generals in the field are urgently petitioning Nanking for more and more paper money for their troops. Recently planes have been flying over much of China dumping tons of currency at various Army headquarters.

Candlelight Service Is Setting for Mary Hodges-Wayne E. Thomas Double-Ring Ceremony

MRS. WAYNE E. THOMAS

At 7:30 o'clock in the evening, Friday, September 26, in a beautiful candlelight service, Miss Mary Hodges, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Hodges, of this city, became the bride of Mr. Wayne E. Thomas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Zerrell Thomas of Hereford. Rev. Joseph Findley read the double-ring ceremony in the First Christian Church in Canyon.

Vows were spoken before a large improvised Gothic window entwined with fern and centered with a bouquet of large white mums. On either side of the window arrangement were tall palms and baskets of white flowers flanked by tall seven branched candelabra bearing lighted white tapers. The bride's path to the chancel was marked with white satin rope draped between satin covered posts bearing lighted candles. Each pew bore lighted tapers in an arrangement of white flowers tied with large white satin bows, and seven lighted candles in each window in bases of fern completed the church decorations. Miss Marion Miller presided at the bride's book at the church.

While guests were arriving, Miss Pauline Brigham, pianist, played "I Love You," by Grieg. Introducing the ceremony, Mr. Bill Hutchison of Pampa, sang "Because" by D'Hardelot and "Ah Sweet Mystery of Life" by Herbert. Soft music was played during the exchange of vows.

Preceding the wedding party, Misses Joan Byars and Betty Brown lighted the candles. They wore yellow taffeta gowns and carried colonial nosegays of rainbow asters in which were centered their lighted candles.

Wearing identically fashioned gowns of blue taffeta and net with fitted bodices and long peplum effects, bridesmaids Misses Carlyn and June Wimberly, cousins of the bride, began the bridal procession. Their hats of blue net with large bows in back matched their gowns.

Attending her sister-in-law as matron-of-honor, Mrs. James W. Hodges of Tulia was attired in a gown of orchid net styled with fitted bodice and full skirt. Her hat was of matching net and tied in a large bow in back.

Miss Sada Ruth Hoskins of Spearman attended the bride as maid-of- honor, and her gown was of pink net with full skirt and fitted bodice. She wore a hat of matching net. All the attendants carried identical colonial nosegays of rainbow colored asters tied with rainbow satin streamers.

Mr. Ray Brickey of Dalhart served the groom as best man and groomsmen were Howard "Red" Weatherley of Panhandle, Charles Bruce of Vega, and Joe Merriman of Amarillo.

Preceding the bride, little Misses Emma Liston Coleman and Margaret Lee Johnson, wearing identical sequin trimmed gowns of pastel green taffeta and net and halo-type pink net hats and gloves, scattered rose petals on the white aisle cloth.

Entering on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage, the bride was lovely in a bouffant-skirted gown of ivory slipper satin, fashioned with a fitted bodice and bateau neckline. The tunic effect on the skirt extended into a graceful train and she carried a bouquet of orchids surrounded by stephanotis and long streamers of rainbow satin ribbon. For something old she wore two gold bracelets which her late grandmother Hodges wore at her wedding. Something borrowed was her double-tiered veil of illusion which belonged to her cousin, Mrs. Harold Seafeldt, of Silverton.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Hodges chose a wool gabardine suit-dress of palamino brown, and brown accessories. Her corsage was gardenias surrounded by white carnations. The bridegroom's mother wore a dress of brown satin with brown accessories and a corsage of gardenias and white carnations.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of Mrs. T. S. Stevenson, aunt of the bride. Centerpiece for the serving table was a white three-tiered wedding cake resting on a large reflector which was surrounded by asters. The table was garlanded with fern caught by small bouquets of asters and bore crystal appointments.

Mrs. C. V. Wimberly, aunt of the bride, presided at the punch service, and Mrs. W. R. Kendall of Amarillo, aunt of the bridegroom, served the wedding cake.

After the reception, the couple left on a short wedding trip. For traveling the bride wore a brown gaberdine suit, pure silk blouse and brown accessories. Her corsage was of orchids.

Mrs. Thomas is a graduate of West Texas State High School, and received her B. S. degree in music last spring from West Texas State College. While a sutdent at West Texas State she was a member of Gamma Phi Sorority, Alpha Chi, honorary scholastic fraternity, was chosen for Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities in her senior year, and was pianist for the college chorus and orchestra for three years. She was also a member of the College Variety Show for three years.

Mr. Thomas graduated from Adrian High School, and received his B. A. degree in political science from West Texas State College last spring, where he was a member of Alpha Sigma Xi fraternity. He was also a member of Alpha Chi, Alpha Psi Omega, honorary dramatic fraternity, and in his junior and senior years was chosen for Who's Who in American Colleges and Universitie.s

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas will make their home in Pampa where both are employed in the Pampa schools.

THIS IS TEXAS' MILLIONTH TELEPHONE! Making the first call is Mrs. Gunter W. Koetter, pretty war bride from Luxembourg. Looking on are Mr. Koetter, Houston architect and veteran of 4½ years of Army service, and 14-month-old Jay Koetter.

SOUTHWESTERN BELL INSTALLS

Millionth TELEPHONE IN TEXAS

SOUTHWESTERN BELL'S millionth telephone in Texas was installed late in August in the home of a Houston architect, his Luxembourg war bride, and their 14-month-old son.

Mr. and Mrs. Gunter W. Koetter had been waiting for a telephone for many months.

And, like many another Texas family, the Koetter's new telephone is on a four-party line until telephone factories and installation crews can catch up with Texas' post-war needs for telephone service.

When the millionth Texas telephone was installed, no one was happier than Mrs. Koetter. Said she: "I can hardly believe I'm going to have a telephone of my own. Back in my native Luxembourg, only the very rich can afford telephone service."

INSTALLATION of the millionth telephone is a historic milestone and a far cry from Texas' first telephone, installed in 1878, connecting Col. A. H. Belo's office at the Galveston News with his nearby home!

Less than 10 years ago—in 1938—Texas had only half a million telephones!

On V-J Day—just two years ago—Texas had 750,000 telephones!

Thus, Texas has added as many telephones in less than 10 years as were installed in the previous 60 years! And despite postwar shortages, we've gained more telephones in Texas in the two years since V-J Day than were added in the 10 years preceding the war!

Yet—despite this record, 137,000 Texas families and business concerns are now on the waiting list for telephones. Although we're installing service several times faster than ever before, it has been impossible to connect telephones as fast as Texans are applying for them.

WE'RE PROUD to be growing with Texas. And, we're hard at work on the biggest telephone expansion and improvement program in the history of the state. We shall continue to do everything within our power to bring telephone service, as early as possible, to everyone in Texas who wants it.

New Course of Music Offered WT Sixth Grade

Glenn Truax, director of orchestra and teacher of violin at West Texas State announces that a new course of study is being offered for sixth grade pupils at West Texas State Demonstration school. All pupils will be given instruction in string instruments daily.

This new approach to education and culture has been adopted in two other state colleges and has met with enthusiasm on the part of pupils, teachers and parents.

The college is providing instruments as far as possible with five string basses, five cellos, four violas and seven violins. A few of the students wish to buy instruments in order that they may practice at home.

Seven violins are needed to complete the orchestra, and any person who will loan a violin is requested to contact Mr. Truax at telephone 189W. Excellent care will be taken of the instruments, and they will be restrung if necessary, Mr. Truax stated.

Students who were started last year under the class lesson plan of learning are now playing with the school orchestra, it was said.

remodeled or moved within four years, when the present contract expires. This will cost from $25,000 to $75,000.

The State Highway Department wants to widen the highway through Canyon, which will take a considerable amount of money on the part of the city.

The city has spent $20,000 in improving the water plant. Five years ago the plant produced 300 gallons per minute; today it produces 1,050 gallons per minute. The sale of water in August 1942 was 9 million gallons; this August the sale was 25 million gallons.

It costs the city 87½ cents per light per month for street lighting. The city does not have enough street lights, but it is costing $1,000 per month for street lights.

The present taxable value is 2 millions dollars and the rate is $1.50 per $100.00 valuation.

A FREE PEOPLE---A FREE PRESS

THE AMERICAN PEOPLE ARE NOT DUMB

We Americans have never, in the dictionary sense, been dumb. We are extremely vocal. When we don't like something, we say so. We tell our neighbor; we wire our Congressman and; probably most significant, we write a letter to our newspaper—a good many million of us every year.

We are not dumb. We have never lost the use of our vocal chords. We know we're in the driver's seat, we know we run the country. We're awfully cranky and when something displeases us, we're quick to tell the world. That's why we get things done.

In the good old U. S. A. slang sense, we Americans aren't dumb either. We know that the right to express ourselves didn't just happen. It was fought for. It was paid for in tears and in blood and we have guarded it jealously through the years.

We are not dumb. We know that our precious freedoms and liberties, the right to think, vote, travel, earn and worship as we please, are safe only so long as we Americans are free to read, write and publish what we please, through our newspapers. We know that of all our freedoms, the freedom of the press is the most important. We know that it guards every other liberty and that without it we would live in darkness, a prey to any demogogue's whim.

We Americans are not dumb. As long as we value our rights and our liberties we shall steadfastly resist any attempt by private interests or public authority to encroach upon our free newspapers. For the right to read is the right to know—to be informed. Because all our other rights depend on it, it is the one right most worth defending.

DOUBLE BOO!

The old haunted house that nobody would rent is now a duplex.

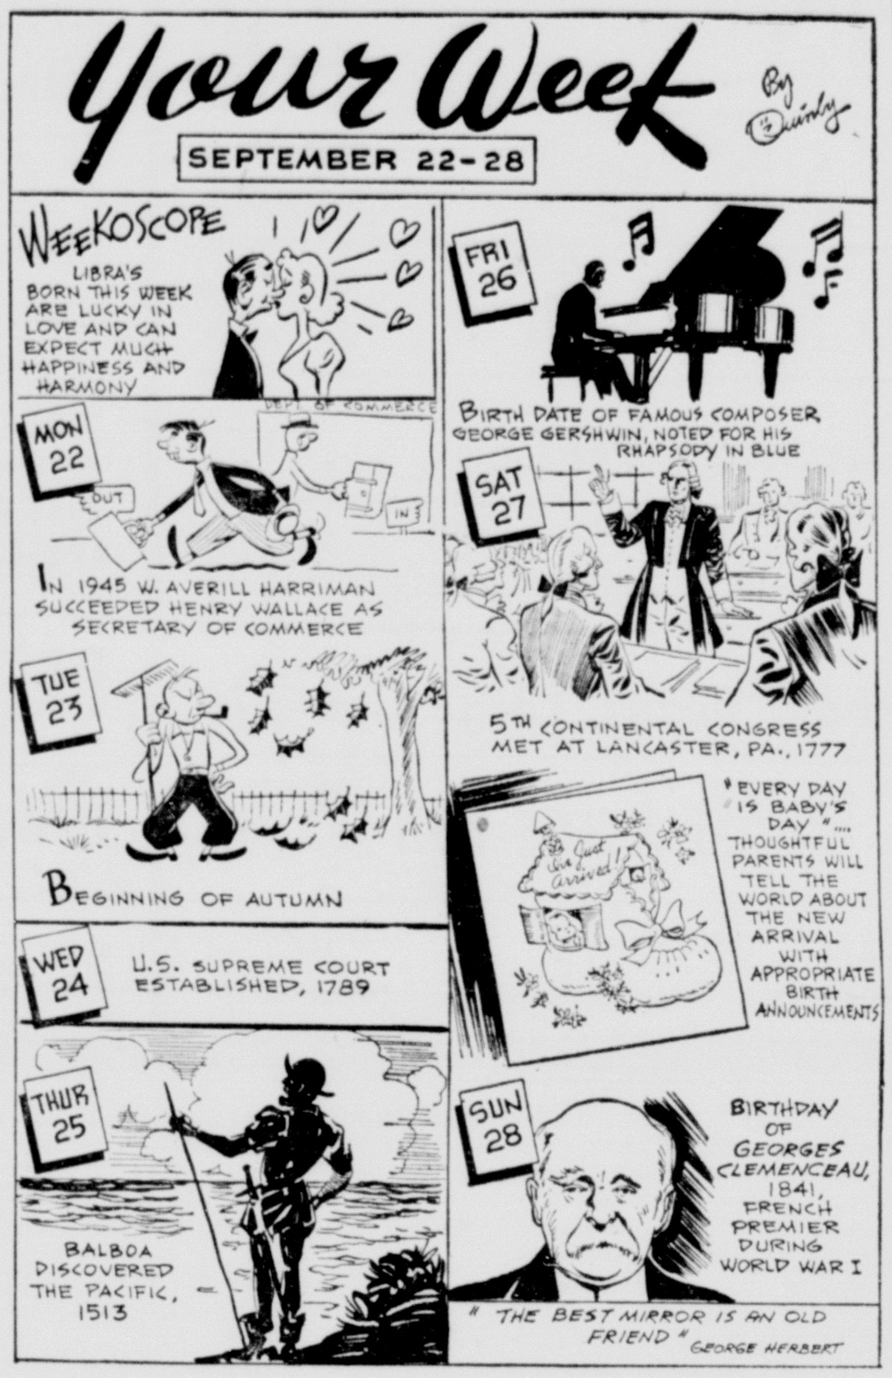
It's about time England's poet Laureate wrote an Owed to America.

If all commentators were laid end to end, a lot of people in public life would be glad to send flowers.

Little Boy Blue, come blow your horn. Petrillo isn't bothering the school kids this season.

KILN INSPECTORS

WITH RESTORATION of the outdoor kiln above and purchase of a new electric one to be installed in the art laboratory (formerly the band practice house) the art department will be adequately furnished for a ceramics course, offered this semester for the first time in several years. A. C. Kieselbach of the art teaching staff and sophomore Pat Wiley of Wheeler are pictured previewing the work of the class in pottery crafts.



The man without a dollar to his name is about fifty cents better off than he used to be.

BOYCE HOUSE "Gives You Texas"

On the general subject of relief for the war-stricken countries:

The war has been over for more than two years. They have soil and sunshine and manpower—the United States has no monopoly on these assets. It seems to me that we should taper off on relief and send them such things as seed and plows, so they can go to work and shift for themselves.

The Book of Books says that man shall eat bread in the sweat of his brow—and those people should begin to eat their bread in the sweat of their own brows instead of in the sweat of the brows of the American taxpayers.

That, in essence, is what we understand the Marshall Plan to be.

Your columnist felt highly flattered when an invitation arrived to speak to a convention of several hundred physicians from 11 states in Galveston. And then I found out that they were psychiatrists—and I don't know now whether they want to hear me or study me.

But that does remind me of the time that I said something rude to a friend and was sorry the next moment and his retort made me sorrier. He had served in the army in World War I and he wrote a letter to a newspaper, complaining at the food in the training camp. The letter was published and the military authorities were going to discipline him. But somebody said, "Maybe he's crazy" so they held a hearing, found him to be sane and then sentenced him to k. p. duty for three weeks.

Well, several years later, he and I were having an argument and, though we were friends, the discussion got a little heated and he implied I was not very intelligent. I said, "At any rate, I never have been tried for lunacy." He said, "Well, I have the advantage of you—I have been tried and was found to be sane."

And I couldn't think of a comeback to that.

A big bushel-size Frozen Food Locker is combined with the finest modern refrigeration for fresh foods in the new 1947 silent Servel Gas Refrigerator. With it, the homemaker can expect to save hours of marketing time, make every meal more exciting.

For fresh foods, Servel's moist-cold and dry-cold protection maintains crispness in salad greens and garden vegetables, tenderness in meats. Big clear-across shelves give extra roominess—adjust to eleven different positions.

Most important, the Servel Gas Refrigerator is permanently silent. It has no moving parts in its freezing system. Instead, a tiny gas flame does the work. As 2,000,000 owners know, Servel stays silent, lasts longer. New 1947 Servels are now on display.

proper home has been secured for these relics. At the present time, there is not sufficient room in the first unit to take care of all the exhibits which are on hand.

C. R. Burrow is Randall county chairman of the finance committee. Mr. Burrows states that a large number of persons have made contributions to the Museum fund, and that others have promised donations to the completion of the second unit. A campaign will be started at once to raise funds in Randall county for the second unit. Those who have promised donations will be requested to make payments this week, and the campaign will be extended to every person in Randall county. It is hoped that a list of all Randall county donors to the second unit may be published in the Canyon News next week. The necessity for immediate contributions to the building fund was urged by all directors present Sunday. It will take on an average more than $2,000 from each county to complete the second unit. Carson county so far leads in this campaign, where David M. Warren has raised more than $3,000 for the completion of the second unit.

Randall county citizens are urged to take immediate action in making contributions. Checks may be left with Mr. Burrow, Dr. L. F. Sheffy, at The News office or at the First National Bank.

The Museum is the biggest drawing card in Canyon. The registration this year is running far ahead of all previous years. Thousands of people are coming to Canyon to inspect the wonderful exhibits which are on display. Completion of the second unit is greatly needed in order to make possible a sufficient amount of display room for the valuable exhibits which have not been shown in the past because of the cramped conditions in the building.

Lions Club Hears Guest Speakers On Bond Issue

The local Lions Club had as guest speakers at the luncheon meeting Thursday, September 25, W. H. Upchurch, director of the AAA and Farm Bureau, and Delbert Lowes, president of the Chamber of Commerce. The speakers presented the many advantages which the proposed road bond issue would mean to the county by producing 80 additional miles of improved farm to market roads. More economical marketing of produce and increased real estate values were among the chief values discussed.

Formal presentation of the telebinocular was a special feature of the program. Joe Findley and A. Kirk Knott, past and present Lions Presidents presented the gift of the club to Supt. Elmer Wooten, of the Canyon Schools and F. E. Savage, Director of the West Texas Training Schools. This valuable educational device is to be used freely by both school systems as an aid in the discovery of eye defects. Visual conservation has been one of many beneficial projects sponsored by Lions organizations generally.

Visitors included Coach Frank Kimbrough and Jerry Malin, of the West Texas State faculty, guests of Lion Clark Jarnigan; Professor F. E. Savage, the guest of Lion Leo Duflot, and Lion Scotty Parrish from the Floydada Club.

Baptist Revival In Progress

The revival at the Baptist church, according to announcement of pastor Roy L. Johnson, is attracting good crowds, and there have been a good number of people added to the local church membership. Rev. R. E. Streetman of Mineola, Texas is the preacher, and Norville N. Marshall of Commerce, Texas is directing the music and other activities. Two children's and youth choirs are being trained for special services over the week-end and into next week, for the meetings will continue until Wednesday, Oct. 8.

High goals have been set for all services Sunday, Oct. 5, and it is believed new attendance records will be made. All interested friends have been urged to be in the services Sunday, which include Sunday School at 9:45, Training Union at 6:45 and preaching services at 11 and 8. Week-day services during the revival are at 10 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

Episcopal Church Services for Next Week Announced

Services at the All Saints Protestant Episcopal Church for the next week begin with Sunday school at 9:45, and morning prayer, Holy Baptism and sermon at the 11 o'clock hour Sunday. Rt. Rev. George Henry Quarterman, Bishop of the district of North Texas will speak.

The Church guild will meet at the Little House of Fellowship Wednesday night at 8 o'clock, and instruction for the confirmation class will be given at the Little House of Fellowship, Thursday night at 8 o'clock.

Natural bean vanilla will be scarcer next year. Reason: bad weather in Madagascar. But look for plenty of synthetic vanillin which comes from a variety of sources—clove oil, coal tar, creosote, benzine or waste liquid from sulphite pulp and paper making.

News In Canyon 25 Years Ago

(Taken from the files of the Randall County News of September 28, 1922)

It is denied by the Ku Klux Klan that this organization had anything to do with writing threatening letters to the News and several Canyon persons. It is further stated that the Klan was officially disbanded in Canyon several months ago.

The city council has let a contract to pave 10 blocks on Fourth Avenue from the depot to the college. Only the west side of the square has been opened to traffic. The new paving will be on natural foundation.

Enrollment at the college was 520.

John F. Taylor of Clovis will be at the Jowell school house the 4th Sunday in October for the purpose of organizing a singing convention in Randall county.

T. D. Moss and Miss Hazel Hurley were married. He was a former publicity man for the college.

Deposits in the two banks of Canyon totaled $580,808.17.

Dr. S. R. Griffin has moved back to Canyon to open offices. His family has lived in Amarillo since he went into the Medical Corps of the Army during the war.

In celebrating the 50th Anniversary in Dallas, Sanger Bros., announced that there had never been an issue of any Dallas newspaper published without an advertisement from this firm. Millions of dollars have been invested in store publicity, and it has paid the firm well.

Mrs. J. A. Brewer of Childress and Miss Marcelle Brewer of Amarillo were recent visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Foster and Sally. They are the mother and sister of Mrs. Foster.

C. H. Stratton will return this week from an extended visit with relatives and friends in California. He accompanied his son, Charles, who holds and associate professorship at the University of California.

Mrs. Ishmael Hill, Bobby Jack and Carolyn, spent the week end visiting here in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Harden. They went from here to Beaumont where Mr. Hill is associated with the Beaumont school system.

Mr. and Mrs. Murray Boston and children spent Sunday visiting with friends and relatives in McLean.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Mickle have returned from a fishing trip to Eagle Nest, N. M. They were accompanied by their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Heafner of Mosquero, N. M.

Mr. and Mrs. George Zeiner of Nebraska City, Neb., were recent visitors here in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Brandt.

Mrs. Berl Mayfield is in Childress this week visiting in the home of her daughter and family.

Black-Hinders Nuptials Read in Impressive Candlelight Church Service Saturday Evening

MRS. LOUIS G. HINDERS

On Saturday evening the First Christian Church was the setting for the marriage of Mary Carolyn Black, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Black, to Louis G. Hinders, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hinders.

Rev. Hubert Thomson, pastor of the First Methodist Church, read the impressive single-ring service at 7 o'clock. Mrs. Lee Foster, pianist, played several nuptial selections while the guests assembled and accompanied Mrs. J. D. Barker in singing "Through the Years" by Youman and "I Love Thee" by Grieg. The traditional wedding marches were used for the processional and recessional.

Decorative appointment at the altar featured arrangements of white mums, white asters, palms and fern. An arch with double gates was entwined with salal foliage and flanked by branched candelabra. Crushed velvet draped the chancel rail and covered the altar floor and ascending steps. The central processional aisle was marked with bouquets of white asters on alternate pews. Pyramid candle arrangements spaced in lemon leaves decorated all windows in the church.

Misses Dorothy Elizabeth Neblett and Elaine Cundiff , dressed in gowns of blue and pink marquisette, lighted the candles.

Miss Laverne Hinders, sister of the bridegroom, attended the bride as maid-of-honor. She was attired in a gown of pink, styled with an off-the-shoulder fitted bodice of taffeta and a full skirt of marquisette over taffeta. Her halo hat was of pink tulle and her Colonial bouquet was of blue asters and blue tulle. Her evening length mitts were of pink taffeta.

The bridesmaids, Miss Ellen Sanders and Miss Frances Standley wore identical blue dresses of taffeta and marquisette, styled to match the maid-of-honor's gown. Their hats were of blue tulle; their bouquets pink aster and pink tulle; their mitts blue taffeta.

Bradford Black, brother of the bride, was best man and Bob Black, brother of the bride, and Frank Cannon of Clarendon were groomsmen. Serving as ushers were Elmo Barrett of Happy, and Irving SoRelle, Jr.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a lovely white satin gown, designed with a deep yoke of imported lace joined to the basque bodice with a bias flounce of satin. Tiny satin buttons adorned the back of the bodice and the sleeves which formed points over the hands. Her full skirt extended into a chapel train. Her finger-tip veil of illusion, bordered with lace, fell from a lace bonnet trimmed with seed pearls. She wore a string of pearls brought by the bridegroom from Korea and a gold bracelet which belonged to her grandmother. Her white Bible was topped with a white orchid and showered with stephanotis.

Mrs. Black, mother of the bride, wore a grey dress with brown accessories and a corsage of Talisman roses. Mrs. Hinders, mother of the bridegroom, wore a green dress with black accessories and a corsage of red roses.

Following the ceremony, the bridal party was feted at a reception in the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Black, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hinders, Mr. and Mrs. Louis G. Hinders and members of the wedding party formed the receiving line.

A tiered wedding cake centered the beautiful crystal and silver appointed table that was laid with a handmade, Italian cut-work linen cloth.

Two aunts of the bride, Miss Pearl Black of Canyon and Mrs. Irby Carruth of Waco, served the cake and frosted punch which was served with toasted nuts and mints. Misses Frankie Phillips, Beulah Hammond, and Frances Harp, Mrs. R. A. Neblett and Mrs. Ray Campbell assisted in the dining room. Mrs. Lee Foster played piano selections during the reception. Mrs. Bernard Warren presided at the guest book.

Mrs. Hinders is a graduate of Canyon High School, attended West Texas State and was graduated from Texas Christian University in June. While a student in T. C. U. she was a member of Meliorist, "Y," Alpha Chi and IRC. Mr. Hinders is a graduate of Canyon High School. He served 2½ years in the army and is a senior student at West Texas State.

After a wedding trip to New Mexico the couple will be at home in Canyon. For traveling, the bride chose a gray suit with black accessories and wore an orchid corsage.

OUR DEMOCRACY——by Mat

Cider-pressing Time

THIS IS THE SEASON WHEN, IN GRAND-DAD'S DAYS, THE THRIFTY FARMER BROUGHT HIS SURPLUS APPLES TO THE CIDER MILL FOR PRESSING. TO GET FULL USE OF HIS CROP HE HAD TO PLAN AHEAD- ENGAGING TIME AT THE MILL— TAKING HIS TURN WITH HIS NEIGHBORS.

MOST OF THE OLD CIDER MILLS HAVE DISAPPEARED FROM THE AMERICAN COUNTRYSIDE, BUT THE TRADITION OF THRIFT THEY EXEMPLIFY CONTINUES. PLANNING AHEAD FOR THE FULL USE OF THE FAMILY'S RESOURCES— FOR ITS CURRENT NEEDS AND FOR ITS FUTURE SECURITY THROUGH LIFE INSURANCE AND SAVINGS— IS CHARACTERISTIC OF THE PEOPLE OF OUR DEMOCRACY.

Solomon-Teague Wedding Rites Read in Virginia

Before an altar banked with white gladioli and pink dahlias, Miss Bettye Ruth Solomon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Solomon, Sr., of Canyon, and Robert Delmar Teague, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Teague, Sr., of Raymondville, Texas, were united in marriage in a lovely evening wedding at the Glebe Baptist Church at Arlington, Virginia.

The double ring ceremony, performed by Rev. Brasted, a retired army chaplain, took place on Wednesday, September 17, and was attended by a host of friends. A reception was held at the home of Mr. F. H. Rauschenberger of Arlington, Va. and Memphis, Tennessee, and was attended by more than thirty people.

Attending the bride was Miss Ruth Klugherz of Mankato, Minnesota.

John Jalonski of Pottsville, Pa., was the best man. Lester H. Baxendale of Cliffside Park, New Jersey gave the bride in marriage.

The bride was attired in a street length dress of ice blue Satin and carried a bouquet of white roses. Miss Klugherz wore a street length dress of old rose with an orchid corsage.

Mrs. Teague attended the West Texas State College, and Mr. Teague was graduated from the Chillicothe School of Business, Chillicothe, Missouri. He was in the armed forces for more than three years and was attached to the War Department during his tour of enlistment. At present he is attached to the War Department in a civilian capacity.

Attending the wedding was Mrs. O. M. Solomon, Jr., of Borger. The couple left immediately following the reception for a four week wedding trip of which two weeks will be spent in Texas. The couple will be at home in Arlington.

Twins From Oklahoma at W. T.

SUE AND LOU SMITH
. . . Freshman twins from Mangum, Okla.

So you have been having eye trouble—you think you have been seeing double. Relax, forget the optometrist, it is really not your eyes but the newest set of twins on the campus—Sue and Lou Smith.

These vivacious brown-eyed twins were born in Burkburnette, Texas, October 12, 1929, but have recently moved to Vernon.

They attended high school in Mangum, Okla. where Lou served as cheerleader and both took part in Junior and Senior class plays. Lou and Sue were members of the school glee club, of a quartet and an octet which toured the state of Oklahoma and once appeared before the House of Representatives in Oklahoma City.

No Jealousy Here

The twins have a charming personality and a cheerful attitude. They get along exceptionally well and have never been jealous of each other. Although they are very much alike in height, size, and coloring you can tell them apart.

They prefer to "double date" and they say they have never confused their dates except when talking on the telephone. As for their preference, in men they choose blond-headed boys who are good dancers.

Following tradition, the twins usually dress alike but not always. Their favorite color is blue and their favorite food is salad of all kinds. The expression they use most frequently while speaking is one of their own invention and new to most of us. It is the word "crooky." For a definition of this you will have to see one of the twins.

Talented Vocalists

Lou and Sue both have excellent voices and enjoy singing and working together. Singing, of course, is their main interest and hobby.

They are interested in the Buffalo Variety Show and are very likely prospective members for the show. After one year at West Texas State they plan to attend the University of Oklahoma where they will continue their work in music.

Privately, officials in Washington are becoming more and more critical of the men leading the British Government. The complaint is made that some members of the Labor Government are guided in what they say by local politics, ignoring its impact on the world. Another criticism is that British leaders refuse to accept realistically Britian's reduced stature as a world power.

The way things are shaping up, the future Japan is to be the center of U. S. influence in the Far East. Officials see little hope of bringing a strong, stable China out of the present civil war. On the other hand, the idea is growing that the Japanese, if given reasonably generous treatment in the peace treaty, will work for and with the United States, rather than with Russia.

Russian experts on the Atomic Energy Control Commission recently have given the impression that the problem neither interests nor concerns them. The attitude has become so pronounced that an international control plan is less likely now than ever in the past. However, the Commission is going ahead to perfect a plan that, in the continued absence of Russian agreements, will eventually be placed before the United Nations.

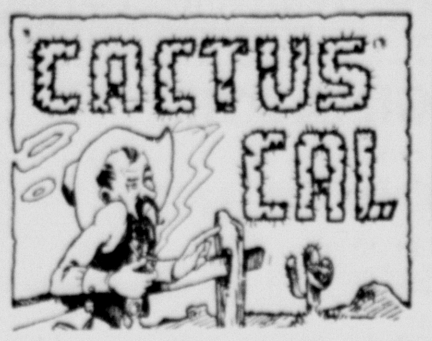
Help the Eagles

The Eagle's Tale

Down the Demons



Well, kids, I'm just hot off the wires with the latest, so listen closely to this list of ultra-culture stuff that's happened just lately and I hope I haven't missed a soul. Here goes!

Flashy Flash—Seen at the local cinema Saturday night were James Bible and Helen Spencer. We wonder just how long this has been going on.

I am forced to believe that Tulia was the scene for a new romance last Friday night between Barbara McDougal and Richard Walters.

Carrol Wray Dickerson escorted WT's Dorothy Berry "somewhere" Friday night. (I don't know exactly where).

Enjoying the fair Saturday night was a new couple—Rusty Davis and Juanita Avent. It was reported from a very reliable source that they really had lots of fun.

Jo Bullard was seen recently with a certain "dream man" from Hart. Don't keep us in suspense, Jo—who is he?

I want to personally dedicate this piece of Shakespears to Donald Davis:

Your eyes are blue,
Your hair is red,
A kiss from you
Would raise the dead.

'Tis rumored that Billy Joe Mccarter is immensely interested in a certain brown-eyed brunette sophomore and even had a date all set with her one Sunday night not long ago. What about this, B. F.?

Betty Miller sure is proud of someone's (namely Dwight Moore's) senior pin. Good work, Betty!

Did you have fun at the fair Friday night, Donnell Rutharet and Mary Ann Hinson?

Tommy Hunter appeared rather puzzled at a certain note of reply in sixth period study hall from Mary Borden. Why the bewildered expression, Tommy?

Bobby Ratliff has an interesting cousin, doesn't he, Ray Burrus? Anyway, Bobby and Ara Beth, Ray and Pauline had a roaring good time over the week-end.

Too bad Neva McDougal and Valeta Haines weren't home Saturday night when Ted and Johnny Freeman came down.

Well, fans, admirers, and the rest of you all—maybe this will hold you until next time.

BACK OUR TEAM

Football is here again and the Eagles are having some strenuous work outs, and playing hard games for the honor of CHS. You know, the football team can not do all of the work. If no one is behind them, they do not play as well as if the whole student body is there boosting them up.

Is the student body behind the team? How about attending the games and proving it to them. Help them out by taking part in the pep rallies and really yelling. Get behind the Eagles and show them you are helping them to win!

Valeta Haines Is CHS Agent for Clinic in Austin

Valeta Haines, editor of the 1948 "Soaring Wings," and Mrs. Nora E. Gilmore, adviser, attended the School Annual Clinic sponsored by the Steck Company at Austin, Texas, last week.

Lectures were held daily from Thursday through Saturday from nine o'clock a. m. to five p. m. in the ballroom of the Driskill Hotel on the mezzanine floor. Discussions in the morale of the yearbook and its public relations, staff organizations, themes, layout and design, were the topics for Thursday's meetings. A supervised visit through the departments of the new Steck seven-storied publishing plant highlighted the late afternoon.

Authorities of school art, hand lettering, copy preparation, typography, advertising, and covers, demonstrated the most practical methods for use in the annuals.

Saturday morning was devoted to a discussion of photography with a demonstration of good and bad photo work and their effects in the annual.

During the meeting, the first of its kind, sixty-seven schools were represented with an average of 343 students attending the sessions. Special meetings were held each night to present additional matter.

Magazine Sales Are First Junior Class Moneymaking Plan

"Magazines! "Magazines! "Please sir, buy a magazine and help our class." !

We, the junior class of Canyon High School are now, and for two more weeks, will be selling magazine subscriptions published by the Curtis Publishing Company of Philadelphia, Pa. Our class is selling subscriptions to raise funds for the Junior-Senior Banquet.

Right now the publication sale is on once again and we need your support. New subscriptions and renewals can be secured from any junior for the next two weeks.

Don Hickman and Mabel Graham are captains for the two teams. The class is divided into two sections to furnish competition for the project.

Kenneth Fisher, a junior in Canyon High School, has been in Neblett Hospital suffering from head injuries received in a fall at Ellwood Park in Amarillo, Sunday.

Business Meeting Is Followed by FHA Initiation

After being called to order by the president, Donna Erwin, in the CHS auditorium, approximately 50 Future Homemakers met Thursday night, September 25, at 7:30.

To begin the meeting's business, Ema Gene Zachry was elected vice-president and Mary Ruth Hill secretary to replace Earline Davis and Laverne Hinders, who transferred to W. T. High this year. Then the club appointed Jean Hill to go to the Area I Meeting at Lefors.

After agreeing to pay $.25 chapter dues by October 15, the girls escorted the freshmen to the first floor to begin some slow torture to initiate them into the organization.

The slimes were rather surprised to find themselves crawling under six class tables into a dark kitchen where they got their faces "powdered," their skin "branded," their mouths filled with somewhat unpleasing varieties of "food," and their hands dyed red.

From the kitchen, the "victims" were led into the gym where they pushed a piece of chalk for a limited distance and were "accidentally" soaked with cold water.

Mrs. Perry Bell, sponsor of the Canyon High FHA Chapter, stated that she was quite pleased with so many newcomers and hoped they would continue with their best abilities toward the improvement of the Future Homemakers of America.

Club Girls Attend Area Association

Attending the fall FHA council meeting Saturday in LeFors were: Donna Erwin, Sue Ann Colwell, Jean Hill, and Mrs. Perry Bell, home economics instructor.

The main purpose of this gathering was the installation of the new Area I officers, which was done in a candlelight ceremony. Donna, who is president of the Canyon chapter, was installed as the new vice-president of this area, and Sue Ann is the outgoing reporter. Jean went as the voting delegate from the local chapter.

The morning program consisted of registration, music by a sextet from the LeFors chapter, and the discussing of old business from the last area meeting.

After lunch girls engaged in a song followed by announcements from Mrs. Armstrong, area supervisor. Donna Erwin gave a group of piano selections and Juanita Davis, from Phillips, reported on her trip to Camp Arrowhead last summer. Donna and Mary Ruth Hill were the delegates from the Canyon club who attended the camp. Highlighting the events of the afternoon was the review by the voting delegates of what their chapter had been doing. To conclude the day's events a social hour was held.

Approximately 30 chapters were represented at this meeting.

The next area meeting which will be held in Plainview is to be a rally for each of the area's chapters.

"The students are quite enthusiastic in their work," states Mrs. Perry Bell, homemaking instructor. "We feel that these meetings are conducive to better organizations of the clubs and a broader understanding of the homemaking aims."

Ted Kelly Directs Veterans School

With 23 members and Mr. Ted Kelly as coordinator, the Veteran's School meets three times a week for the purpose of advancing agricultural knowledge. Each member must be a veteran of World War II and be engaged in farming at the present time.

They meet on Tuesday and Thursday nights and on Tuesday morning they have a field trip. In the night meetings they study all phases of agriculture: including dairying, farming, feeds and feeding, and farm engineering. The field trips consist of visiting different student's farms and various experiment stations in the Panhandle, also agriculture shows and fairs.

Promoters of the school are the Veterans of Foreign Wars and Randall County. The veterans use the facilities of Canyon High School for their meetings. Space for Mr. Kelly's office was taken from the northeast corner of the auditorium. Here a room was built and the entrance is made through the old side exit of the auditorium.

Mr. Kelly spends two hours a week on each student's farm observing the work, giving advice, and instructing. He also directs the class during night meetings.

"We intend to expand in members and add one or two other instructors to our school," states Mr. Kelly.

Canyon High School Eagles rested last week after a 25-0 victory over the Amarillo Price Cardinals. Tuesday, September 23, the Eagles went to Happy for a scrimmage with the Cowboys. Blocking, pass defense, running over plays and getting into condition has been the aim in getting ready for the Dumas Demons on October 3.

So far this season the Eagles have a 50% average with their win over the Cardinals and loss to Muleshoe. The team has not played any conference games yet and is hoping to get lined up for a district ball club. Lee Bailey and James Bible are the co-captains this year. Lee is a two-year letterman as a halfback and Bible lettered two years as guard.

With twelve lettermen back and eight starters the Eagles are running off the "T" and "Box" formation instead of the short punt as has been used the last two years.

This district has been changed from 1A to 2A and Dumas and Dalhart went to another district, while Olton came into our district.

Coach R. D. Wheelock states, "The football team showed some improvement in two or three departments in the Price college game. We feel that the Eagles will be ready for Dumas on October 3."

Twenty-five Girls Are Asking Positions On Basketball Squad

Under the supervision of Miss Paula Frazier, girls' P. E. teacher, twenty-five girls turned out for basketball practice, September 29.

Miss Frazier states, "We have a good prospect for a good team, in playing as well as good sports."

Calisthentics, footwork, and goal practice started the first day of work-out and will continue to be the main routine for the first week.

"There have been no games scheduled up to this time. We are expecting to win our first game of the year and keep right on winning throughout the season," states Miss Frazier.

Simms Represents Canyon at TCTA

Mrs. Cecil Simms, president of the Canyon Classroom Teachers Association, attended the state meeting in Mineral Wells the 26 and 27 of September.

Miss Lois Gray of Fort Worth and her executive committee planned the program.

At 7:30 A. M. o'clock the session was opened with greetings, roll calls, and reports.

At 10:00 A. M. Mrs. Beulah K. Walker, former president of the State organization spoke on "How NEA Helps the Local Classroom Teachers Association."

After lunch the group attended different workshops. Mrs. Simms visited the one titled "Traits and Qualities Related to Success in Teaching."

The entire group of some forty teachers were guests at a 6:30 dinner, compliments of Leonard Brother of Fort Worth, Texas. They listened to an address titled 'Coordinating the work of our Professional Organizations" by Mr. B. B. Cook, editor and business manager of "The Texas Outlook."

Grade Notes

Elwood Rogers from Pampa enrolled in Mrs. Joe Black's first grade Monday.

The past few days Kay Jennings a pupil from Mrs. T. W. Collins' first grade has been absent due to illness.

The students and faculty members of the Canyon Grade School wish to thank Mr. Paul Lindsey the Ford Dealer for the lovely roses which he brought to the classes last Monday.

Coming to Mrs. L. M. Cousins' fourth grade the first of this year are: Ralph Miller, Aurora, Colorado; Paul McKenney, Amarillo; Mickey Jo Hyde, Amarillo; and Wanda Rogers, Happy.

The new women's styles have fixed it so that the figures can lie a little bit.

Solomon couldn't help being wise with so many wives combing the neighborhood.

Young Will Teach Science Classes

Mr. M. K. Young, newly elected sophomore sponsor, when asked what he likes to do most, replied, with a chuckle, "Nothing." While doing this "nothing" he enjoys eating strawberry ice cream.

Mr. Young graduated from the Levelland High School and entered the Navy. He was sent to Midshipman school in Northwestern University and attended Kansas State in the V-12 program, later he served as Naval deck officer in the South Pacific Area for three years.

Entering McMurry College at Abilene at the close of the war, he graduated with a B. S. degree in 1946. He majored in chemistry and at the present time is teaching science in Canyon High School.

Mr. Young is married and he and his wife are living in an apartment at the Cash residence.

"I like the students of Canyon High very much," states Mr. Young, "I also like living in the town of Canyon, and feel that I am to instruct classes of serious minded students who take pride in doing good work."

Mr. Young plans to study medicine in the near future. His life's ambition is to be a good physician and surgeon.

Sue Ann Colwell Is Drum Corps Chief

Canyon High School's Drum Corps is on the march again. The Corps will make its first appearance this year at Memphis, Texas in the Cotton Carnival, October 3. They return to Canyon the same night to perform at the football game between Dumas and Canyon.

The Drum Corps is made up of 22 members under the leadership of drum major Sue Ann Colwell. Twirlers are Sue Jennings, Sue and Fay Dickerson. Flagbearers are Juanita Avent, Wanda Edwards, and June Jennings.

Meeting to Begin Next Monday At Church Of Christ

Earl Craig, Evangelist

The Church of Christ, Third Ave. and 17th St. begins a meeting Monday, October 6. The evangelist for the meeting will be Earl Craig of Colorado City. Olin Huff of Canyon will lead in the singing.

Mr. Craig is well known in Canyon, having both preached for the church here and attended West Texas State College. His ministry in Canyon was fruitful and progressive. His work in later years has continued on the same high level.

Mr. Huff needs no introduction as an excellent singer and leader, having lived here for several years.

The meeting to be held, according to Lyle Bonner, minister of the church, is not to be considered a revival but a series of evangelistic services. To call the meeting a revival, says Mr. Bonner, would be to reflect unjustly on the spiritual condition of the church and upon the effective work most of its members have been and are doing.

Health Program Is Needed In Every School

Every school should have a definite school health program. Situations such as, the kind of drinking water, arrangements for the school lunch, the lighting, seating, ventilation and cleanliness of the school room, and the personal practices of the teachers and children are the bases of the school health program, said Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer.

Every school has tremendous opportunities to promote the health of its pupils and of its community. From early childhood to early manhood and womanhood, most children are enrolled in schools and are under the supervision of school staffs for a substantial part of the day for approximately half the days of the year. The conditions under which they live in school, the help which they are given in solving their health problems, the ideals of individual and community health which they are taught and the information and understanding that they acquire of themselves are factors which operate to develop attitudes and behavior conducive to healthy, happy and successful living.

Schools alone however cannot enable children to attain all the desirable goals of individual and community health. Considering the magnitude and multitude of the diverse and continuing efforts that must be made to satisfy the health needs of children, it is fortunate that many people and groups, in addition to schools, are greatly interested in promoting health. Parents have a prime responsibility.

Physicians, dentists, nurses, health officers, social and welfare workers and their official organizations, such as medical, dental and nursing societies, health departments and voluntary health agencies are all rightly concerned with health activities in their communities.

A VARIETY of scenes, some of them depicted above and right marked beginning days of the 1947-48 term at West Texas State College. Above are pictured two of the freshmen's "cheerful volunteers" who entertained upperclassmen Wednesday night at the Traditional Freshman Mixer. In a can-can number on the stadium turf, Vera Dougherty of Pampa, left, played a featured role in the hour-long program. Dean Wright, frosh football player from Spur, was called down from the grandstands to play his own stylized boogie-woogie. To the right, faculty members were served the first meal from the new cafeteria at a breakfast and business meeting Monday morning. Seated at the table are Mrs. Harris Cook; Harris Cook, former dean of men; Dr. D. A. Shirley, dean of the College; Pres. J. A. Hill; L. G. Allen, dean of the College until 1927; and John Humphreys, former professor of Latin and English. One of the most spirited yell sessions in several seasons of Buffalo football was staged Thursday night when last-year cheerleaders Rosie Bates and LaNelle Hagemeier, below right, directed a pep rally in front of the Administration building. For a time, U. S. Secretary of State Marshall considered putting into his United Nations speech a proposal for a mutual-assistance pact. All nations that wanted aid in defending their national independence would have been eligible to sign it. The suggestion was dropped because it smacked too much of a military alliance against Russia.

Japan's shipments abroad during the first six months of 1947 were led by textiles. Fabrics accounted for more than half the total exports. The principal importers of Japanese goods were Korea and the U. S. Each got about 17 per cent. Approximately 92 per cent of Japan's imports during the period were shipped in by the United States.

ACC Whipped Buffaloes Saturday Night at Abilene; Score 13 to 7

It was just a case of too much V. T. Smith at Abilene Saturday night as he led the Abilene Christian College Wildcasts to a hard-fought 13-7 decision over the Buffaloes from West Texas State.

Smith scored both markers for the Cats, and repeated his superb performance in last week's victory over Southwest Texas State. His defensive work also was worthy of note.

The statistics were about even, with the Buffs having a slight advantage in first downs and rushing; while the Cats were superior in passing, that is, if one can consider 20 yards gained passing to 10 superior. Fumbles and pass interceptions warded off several Buff chances to recover.

Abilene scored first on the third play of the opening period as Smith ran 30 yards for the tally. This was set up by a kick-off which was downed on the 50. Two line plays then set up Smith's touchdown run. Morris's try for the extra point was blocked.

During the remainder of the initial quarter, exchanged punts dominated play, with Boyd Williams getting away with several long kicks, as his average of 42.5 for the night will show. A fumble on the ACC 37 on 3rd down helped the Wildcats out of a hole about midway in the first quarter. Mason's punt over the goal line, and 2 winning plays by Pruitt and Melton made a first down of the Buff 31 as the quarter ended.

Kimbrough sent in 10 new men as the next period began. With Cross and Conner alternating the Buffs made another first down on their 37, but a fumble recovered by Abilene stalled the march. A kick by Williams was taken by Nick Mason on the 10 and returned to the 21. Then Smith, who had been in the Buffs' hair all night, fumbled and West Texas recovered on the 26. After a penalty Johnson's two tries put the ball on the 16 with a first down. Johnson then skirted the right side to the four, and Conner on the following play went through for the score. Melton's kick was good and the score read WT 7—ACC 6. Cross's 55 yard run before halftime was erased by a pass interception.

On the kickoff following halftime Cross ran 59 yards to the Wildcat 41 but another fumble erased any chance of a possible threat. Smith and Carter then alternated with the pigskin, aided by a couple of penalties, with Smith coming over from the 3. Mason's kick was good and it was 13-7. Kicking then dominated play gain for the remainder of the play in the 3rd quarter.

After several punt exchanges Cross scampered for a first down on the Buffaloes' 44. Four successive passes were then tried, with 3 incomplete and the fourth from Melton to Johnson not good enough for a first down. The Wildcats took over and play ended following 2 more downs.

Buffs Will Tackle Texas Tech at Lubbock on Saturday Afternoon

Fireworks are in the offing this weekend as the West Texas Buffaloes journey to Lubbock for the traditional struggle against the powerful Texas Tech Red Raiders.

Both teams will be trying for their first win of the year and will therefore be at prime strength for the battle. Also, because of the extreme rivalry between the schools the struggle should be more exciting.

Tech has lost two games this season so far, but both teams played were top powers in the Southwest Conference. The University of Texas walloped the Raiders 33-0 in the first game, then Texas A. & M. gave them another licking last Saturday, 29-6. It was said of the A. & M. game, however, that the Tech line thoroughly outplayed the Aggies.

The Buffaloes, on the other hand, played Abilene Christian College last Saturday night and lost to the speedy Wildcats 13-7. Fumbles and pass interceptions by the Buffs eventually cost them the game. However, long runs by Cross and Wright for the Buffs added a spark of excitement to the close contest. The figures of the game showed that neither team held the advantage and it was the kind of game that made the spectators stand up practically throughout the contest.

Both foes in the oncoming conflict will be out for a win, not only because they yet have to win one, but also because it is the first game in Border Conference play. This should be enough incentive to keep either team from being over confident.

Tech will have a team quite a bit larger than the Buff squad and also heavier. They have more returning lettermen, and will be playing on their home field which may make the odds against the Buffs a little rougher. But don't discredit the Herd for they still have speed, a rugged line and the same power that held Tulsa and ACC.

With a lot of student support at the pep rallies and a big crowd at the game Saturday, the Buffaloes from WT should give the Tech Raiders a hard time. The fact that it will make one team three time loser and one team a first time winner; that both squads will be looking forward to a conference win and that it is traditional rivalry will add up to make this as colorful as any game this year.
